Essential Municipal Leadership and Management Skills

Program Description:

This Workshop Addresses Practice Groups 2: Policy Facilitation; 15: Presentation Skills; and, 17: Integrity

ICMA University is dedicated to advancing the profession of local government management through learning and skills enhancement experiences. This workshop/event addresses one or more of the 18 core areas that are essential to effective local government management and can be used to achieve ICMA credentialed manager status.

Essential Leadership Skills Roundtable

Learn essential leadership skills from top City and County Administrators. Come prepared with questions as our experienced executives will answer them and share their stories to help you avoid some of the leadership mistakes they have made or witnessed over the years. Learn how to interact with staff at all levels on your rise to the top.

Panel participants include:

Russell Fehr, City Treasurer, City of Sacramento

Paul McIntosh, Executive Director, California State Association of Counties

Laura Gill, City Manager, City of Elk Grove

Essential Management Skills

As a local government decision maker, you are often faced with challenging circumstances calling for a sound, well-reasoned decision or recommendation. In this thought-provoking and challenging workshop, you will work through real-life issues using the case-study method to focus on relations between elected officials and managers, ethics, the essential skills of problem analysis, decision-making, and persuasion. You will learn: how to hone your decision making skills by reflecting on a wide variety of real world situations in local government; foster successful working relationships among elected officials; gain knowledge about trends in the nature of the relationship between elected and appointed officials; and, learn about practical strategies and tips from colleagues to enhance your working relationships.
