

Looking for an excuse to do some spring cleaning? Need to rid your overcrowded closet of suits that no longer fit or you know you'll never wear? Here's your chance to declutter your life while helping women with limited financial resources who are seeking to find meaningful employment.

At the upcoming Municipal Management Association of Northern California (MMANC) Women's Leadership Summit (April 14 – 15, 2010), there will be a clothing drive on behalf of Career Closet – <http://www.careercloset.org>. Career Closet is a 501(c)(3) volunteer-based organization that provides business attire and other services to women. They assist women with the selection of clothing that will help them gain and retain employment, advance their careers and improve family stability. Last year, they assisted over 1,800 women and this year they hope to significantly increase that number.

Career Closet is currently seeking the following items (in ALL sizes):

- Suits
- Blazers
- Work-appropriate blouses
- Work-appropriate skirts
- Slacks
- Work-appropriate shoes
- Purses
- Jewelry
- Scarves
- Briefcases
- All-weather jackets
- New hosiery (in the package)
- Trouser socks
- Belts
- New undergarments (in the package or with tags)
- New makeup

All items that may be hung should be brought on a hanger. Shoes/purses/other accessories may be brought in bags. Please ensure that items are clean and in good condition (no tears, please) before donating (e.g. drycleaned or laundered) so that they are ready-to-wear upon delivery to their intended recipient.
